Greg is currently in his 44th year in the custom framing industry. After a successful 17 year run as a retail framer, winning 25 PPFA framing competition awards, he became an industry spokesperson, teaching seminars both domestically and internationally. He also writes for our industry's trade magazines, here and abroad. He has been a contributing editor for Picture Framing Magazine since its inception. Greg's book, "Guidelines for Great Frame Design" is a best seller and has become a valuable resource in frame shops worldwide. In his free time Greg is an artist.
